Mission Statement

Washington University Physical Therapy will lead in advancing human health through movement, integrating interdisciplinary research, outstanding clinical care and education of tomorrow's leaders to drive optimization of function across the lifespan.

Faculty Speaker

Jill Johnson, PT, DPT, is an Assistant Professor of Physical Therapy at Washington University in St Louis. Dr. Johnson is an alumnus of the Program, graduating with her DPT in 2006. Her passion for teaching and mentoring students led her to join the Program and Clinical Education team as a faculty member in July 2021. Although her role as a faculty member is relatively new, she has been teaching in the Program for several years, and in 2019 she received the Patty K. Scheets award for Excellence in Physical Therapy Education. She has a varied clinical background, working in outpatient orthopedic and outpatient neurological settings. When she's not teaching or mentoring DPT students, Dr. Johnson enjoys spending time with her family, biking, and traveling.
